

Merchants are liable when:

- They fail to provide proof of customer authorization
- The transaction lacks proper authentication (3DS, OTP, signature)
- Goods/services were not delivered as agreed

Merchants are NOT liable when:

- Customer approved transaction via verified authentication
- Dispute is due to customer misunderstanding
- Evidence shows delivery confirmation or service completion

In ambiguous cases, disputes must be escalated.